Mr. George Bush, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Mr. Walsh
Scheduled for Oct 6

Dear Mr. Bush:

The International Affairs Organization is a campus-wide service organization whose primary purpose is bringing programs of significance in the area of international affairs to the University of Northern Iowa Campus. Each year we attempt to invite someone from the intelligence community. Previous speakers have included such people as Ray Cline and William Parmenter.

Our students and faculty were highly impressed with Mr. Parmenter's discussions of the problems facing the intelligence community as it enters the mid-70's and would be grateful for an opportunity to continue the dialogue with a representative of the CIA during the coming academic year. We think he would find the students at UNI (enrollment 10,000) an interested and sympathetic audience.

With your approval, of course, we would hope such a visit might include a talk to a university audience in the morning and an informal colloquium with political science graduate students and faculty in the afternoon. We would be delighted to welcome a representative of the CIA to our campus again, and hope such a visit proves possible. If I can give any further information I can usually be reached at (319) 266-8218.

Sincerely,

485
PT called Winter on 6/28 and said that Mr. Walsh would be one that will do it; expect Walsh to call them directly.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

A group of people operating under various names publish a newspaper known as "New Solidarity". We have evidence that in some cases the "New" in the name is obscured and the paper is known as "Solidarity".

The UAW for many years has published a newspaper called "SOLIDARITY". Unfortunately, this "New Solidarity" is often confused with the UAW newspaper. We believe that the confusion is purposefully caused by the non-UAW group.

The "New Solidarity" newspaper is an irresponsible and scurrilous publication. It has no connection with the UAW and its newspaper, "SOLIDARITY". We are presently embarked on litigation to prevent the misuse of the UAW newspaper name and to end the confusion caused by these irresponsible persons.

The groups connected with "New Solidarity" are variously known as:

- "The National Caucus of Labor Committees"
- "The International Caucus of Labor Committees"
- "The Campaigner Publications"
- "The U.S. Labor Party"
- "The National Unemployed and Welfare Rights Organization"
- "The International Press Service"*
- "The North American Labor Party"

* Please note that there is a legitimate International Press Service, Inc., Suite 923 National Press Bldg. Washington, D.C. 20004, which has also suffered from confusion with these people. We have no quarrel with the legitimate International Press Service, Inc.

Should there be any question concerning those who represent themselves as being from the UAW or Solidarity, the UAW Newspaper, please call me at (202) 296-7484 for verification.

Yours truly,
